Will rock your audience with his speech:

ROCK YOUR INDUSTRYSM

The next wave of innovation is coming. Will you be crushed by it, catch it, or cause it?

Everyone talks game-change. But how do executives and managers truly expand the minds of everyone in their organization to conceive and successfully execute industry-disrupting strategies? Based on his second book, Rock Your Industry, Jim will present his revolutionary *Wave Thinking*SM process. It amplifies the innovation intensity of your entire organization or team, enabling you to out-think and out-implement the competition.

25,000 People in 23 Countries Can't Be Wrong

Jim has presented his revolutionary yet practical model to over 25,000 CEOs, executives, and managers in 23 countries, and 99% concur that it is the single factor that accounts for greatness in leadership, strategy, and innovation.

Not Just Talk – Real Action

Audiences implement Jim Bandrowski's Wave Thinking process and report breakthroughs in strategy, global marketing, sales, Lean Six Sigma, technology, operations, execution, and culture.

Wave Thinking – A Radically Different Approach to Leading and Innovating

Steve Jobs, Bill Gates, Jeff Bezos – these men have rocked the world. Want to learn their secret? Jim has spent decades consulting with CEOs and executives around the globe and studying how the great ones achieve success. He discovered that the best ones take a radically different approach to leading, innovating, and motivating – a process he calls Wave Thinking. Jim breaks this process down step-by-step so every person and team can use it.
